NOTICE

TO THE DEFENDANT(S):

Tennessee law provides a ten thousand dollar ($10,000.00) personal property exemption from execution or seizure to satisfy a judgment. If a judgment should be entered against you in this action and you wish to claim property as exempt, you must file a written list, under oath, of the items you wish to claim as exempt with the clerk of the court. The list may be filed at any time and may be changed by you thereafter as necessary; however, unless it is filed before the judgment becomes final, it will not be effective as to any execution or garnishment issued prior to filing of the list. Certain items are automatically exempt by law and do not need to be listed; these include items of necessary wearing apparel (clothing) for yourself and your family and trunks or other receptacles necessary to contain such apparel, family portraits, the family Bible, and school books. Should any of these items be seized you would have the right to recover them. If you do not understand your exemption right or how to exercise it, you may wish to seek the counsel of a lawyer.

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT :

If the plaintiff or plaintiff's agent has attached an affidavit of correctness to this civil lawsuit, then you must file a sworn statement denying you owe the amount for which you have been sued. In the alternative, you may appear in court on the scheduled hearing date and orally deny the account under oath and assert any defense or objection you may have.

I, _____, do solemnly swear that I am a resident of the State of Tennessee and that owing to my poverty, I am not able to bear the expense of the action which I am about to commence and that I am justly entitled to the relief sought, to the best of my belief.
